Hello,

My name is Brittany, and I am the RESEA Advisor for the OhioMeansJobs centers of Ashland, Wayne, and Holmes Counties.

I am emailing to welcome you to the Reemployment Services and Eligibility Assessment program that we refer to as R-E-S-E-A. The notice of selection was sent to you by email, if you provided your email address when filing for unemployment benefits, or by US mail.

The RESEA Program is designed to provide you with additional resources and job searching assistance, to better prepare you for returning to work. In efforts to improve the program, Ohio is currently delivering a few different models. Some participants maybe only be required to complete RESEA activities which include an Initial and Subsequent appointment. While others may be required to complete the additional job readiness workshop. Participants are randomly assigned to these groups. Regardless of which set of activities you are assigned to complete, participation is mandatory for unemployment benefits eligibility.

The notice states that by 03/04/25 you must view the RESEA video, complete Self-Assessment, and schedule your RESEA Initial Appointment. All three activities are to be completed in your <https://ohiomeansjobs.ohio.gov/> account.

To login to <https://ohiomeansjobs.ohio.gov/> account you need your OH|ID Login.

Unemployment requires you to login to <https://ohiomeansjobs.ohio.gov/>

- Upload Resume by Week 4
- RESEA Video, RESEA Self-Assessment, and Schedule the RESEA Initial 1on1 with me.
- Career Profile by Week 8

If you need any assistance completing any of these steps, please contact me. Benefits may stop if you fail to complete these steps.

If you have already Returned to Work or have accepted a position with a start date, please fill out the Return-to-Work information below and I may be able to exempt you from the RESEA Program. Please note that in order to be exempt, this information is necessary. If information is not provided, the RESEA Program will continue to be active, and unfinished RESEA activities may have an impact on future unemployment claims/benefits.

Good morning, Brittany Crayden.

I am trying to log in and complete those tasks, but the system is not allowing me:

I am also unable to contact support, since the link is dead and redirects me to an IBM software marketing page.

Please advise?

Hi Ben,

I reached out to OMJ.com staff via the live chat feature to find out what this error message could mean. Here is what they recommended:

The job seeker needs to make sure that they are using either Chrome or Edge browser and if they are then they will need to clear their browser's cookies and cache for "all time" then restart their device and log back in.

If they still cannot log in, then they will need to contact us by Live Chat or by phone at 1-888-296-7541 opt. 2, Monday through Friday, from 8am to 5pm.

For the purpose of RESEA, you can always call me and we can complete those tasks manually, and get your one on one scheduled if it's giving you too much trouble.

Let me know if I can assist with anything else!

Thanks,

Brittany Crayden | Eligibility Referral Specialist I - RESEA

Good morning, Brittany Crayden.

I used a different browser to log in. I have another problem. I hope you are able to help. Nothing on the page you linked makes mention of these tasks:

View the RESEA video

Complete Self-Assessment

Schedule your RESEA Initial Appointment

The Site Search function yields nothing useful either. Since your email mentioned that they must be done via my account, I was wondering if you would be able to help me locate them on your web site?

Best regards,

Ben Bubnick

The RESEA activities should be located on your dashboard located under the "Your Tasks" section of the Task Tab. There should be a box that say "RESEA" or "Re-Employment Services and Eligibility Assessment". Below is an image of the area where it should be located.

OhioMeansJobs.com can be a fickle and frustrating website sometimes. If it is STILL not showing up (and it very well might not be), just give me a call and we can complete these tasks over the phone from the case the management side. You can reach me at 330-641-3206, and I am in the office until 4:30.

One way or another, we'll get you covered.

Thanks for reaching out,

Brittany
